

The Donovan Xavier Baker Scholarship

A scholarship offered to African-American males ages 17-22 to assist in post high school education.

The Donovan Xavier Baker Scholarship Fund was created as a way to honor the short but beautiful life of Donovan Xavier Baker.

Donovan graduated from Benjamin O. Davis Aerospace & Technical High School, attended Henry Ford Community College, and was attending Ohio Technical College as a full time student and only had 9 months to completion of his education as an Automotive Technician when his life was cut short.

Award of $2500.00 to the winning essay. To be deposited in winners college account.

For more information and to apply go to:
thedonovanxavierbakerscholarshipfund.com and download the application. Application's accepted January 21st - April 30th. Winner to be announced May 1st via US Mail.

Please include an email address or phone number where you can be reached.

